Class History

In September 1945, fifteen shy, but happy youngsters entered Northwood Grade School to meet their first grade teacher, Miss Clara Dock. The class included David Allen, Rebecca Bilden, Margie Dahl, Dennis Grina, Charlotte Hagert, Ruth Ann Halverson, Marna Haugo, Gerald Holter, Verna Holter, Dean Johnson, Wesley Knain, Ruth Stamness, Janice Tangen, Geraldine Wall and Gordon Sondreal.

The next year with one year of experience behind us, we returned a little braver as second graders. Again our teacher was Miss Dock. David Allen, Margie Dahl, Verna Holter, Dean Johnson and Gerald Holter left us, while Darlyn Halvorson joined our class.

Third grade saw us with Tena Mehus as our teacher. Janice Sandall joined our ranks, while Darlyne Halvorson left us.

In the fall of 1948 we marched proudly into the fourth grade room to be greeted by Iverna Johnson, our teacher. Gerald Holter rejoined us this year, and Geraldine Wall left in the middle of the year for Logan Center.

The fifth grade was our next stop as we steadily climbed. Mrs. Schulstad was our teacher this year, and we gained two new students, Paulette Johnson and Ena Malle Toonekweg.

Eileen Larson was our teacher in the sixth grade. Shirley Hannestad, Terry Thorsell and Geraldine Wall came into our class and Gerald Holter and Charlotte Hagert left us.

With Mrs. Schulstad, Mr. Sethre, Mrs. Hanson as our teachers, we trudged proudly up the stairs to the seventh grade. Additions this year were George Desrosier and Deanna Onsager, and Paulette Johnson and Terry Thorsoll left.

The next year we returned as eighth graders to be taught by Mr. Lindroose. Arlene Mullet, Peter Lodoen and Patricia Ostlie joined us that fall.

In the fall of 1953 twenty-three very green, very shy freshmen marched into the assembly. We were Sharon Anderson, Rebecca Bilden, Mervyn Bjerke, Keith Bjerke, Norman Aurland, Lyle Ellingson, Dennis Grina, Ruth Ann Halverson, Marilyn Hanson, Marna Haugo, Scott Johnson, Wanda Johnson, Arlene Mullet, Patricia Ostlie, Robert Sherva, Janice Sandall, Gordon Sondreal, Janice Tangen, Ruth Stamness, Geraldine Wall, Margaret Sondreal, and Charles Swenson. Ellen Wisler came shortly before Christmas. Highlights of the year were initiation and the carnival. Class officers for the year were Marilyn Hanson, president; Sharon Anderson, vice president; and Margaret Sondreal, secretary-treasurer. Our advisor for that year was Mr. Schulstad.

The next year we returned as happy sophomores with Mr. Sheppard as our advisor. Charles Grotte joined us for awhile, but left soon. The main event of the year was the carnival with Mervyn Bjerke and Ruth Stamness as our king and queen candidates. Officers for that year were Keith Bjerke, president; Rebecca Bilden, vice president; and Ellen Wisler, secretary-treasurer.

Charlotte Hagert joined our class as we ascended to our third step in high school. Keith Bjerke transferred to the Northwest School of Agriculture. We were kept busy with our class play, "Meet Me in St. Louis", the banquet and prom with the theme, "Evening in Paris", and the carnival. Candidates for carnival king and queen were Charles Swenson and Wanda Johnson. Mrs. Pommier and Miss Simonson acted as our advisers and our class officers were Dennis Grina, president; Ruth Ann Halverson, vice president; Charlotte Hager, secretary; and Charles Swenson, treasurer.

In the fall of 1956 we reached the final chapter of our school life. Charlotte Hagert and Geraldine Wall did not return, but Nancy Hanson and Shirley Gunderson were added to our roll. Mr. Sheppard was our advisor and the class officers were Charles Swenson, president; Sharon Anderson, vice president; Wanda Johnson, secretary; and Robert Sherva, treasurer. Highlights of the year were the publication of our class yearbook, presentation of our senior class play, "The Nervous Wreck", initiation, junior banquet and prom, skit day to Minneapolis, baccalaureate, and the long awaited graduation.

With our motto "He can who thinks he can" before us, we left Northwood High School to fulfill our ambitions.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1957, have sadly acknowledged the fact that our carefree school days have come to an end. We do hereby proclaim this to be our last will and testament. As we part we leave behind our most prized possessions and traits.

We bequeath to the Juniors our title as "Mighty Seniors" and our position at the top of the heap. The Sophomores receive our ability to stay out of trouble.

To the Freshmen go our years of experience and character growth.

Sharon Anderson leaves behind her many expressions and sayings to future NHS seniors.

To Barbara Maurseth goes Becky Bilden's ability to keep her man.

Annette Maurseth inherits Mervyn Bjerke's way with the teachers. Use it wisely, Annette.

Lyle Ellingson wills his car to anyone who's crazy enough to want it.

Jerry Gabriel has been honored with Dennis Grina's mathematical brain.

Janice Myron receives Shirley Gunderson's studious ways.

Ruth Ann Halverson has consented to leave her absent mindedness to Dorothy Berge.

"Sonnie" Stamness may now have Marilyn Hanson's cheerful smile.

After constant begging Nancy Hanson has agreed to leave her gift of gab to Diane Hannestad.

Marna Haugo has consented, after much persuasion, to leave her Elvis Presley pictures to Pat Schol.

Scott Johnson bestows upon Lloyd Engen his ways with the girls.

Wanda Johnson leaves behind for Verna Johnson her uncanny knack of being at the wrong place at the wrong time.

Wesley Knain hands down his slow easy gait to Gaylor Korsmo with this motto: "Slow down and live".

Arlene Mullet gives up her friendly manner to anyone who's feeling anti-social.

Patty Ostlie gives to Darlyne Grande her numerous items collected from boys

Robert Sherva's mop shall be passed on to the next willing worker.

Marilyn Ellingson has been bequeathed with Janice Sandall's blushing cheeks and flirtatious ways.

Gordon Sondreal willingly gives his steadfastness in romantic affairs to Jim Granberg.

To Mae Onsager goes Margaret Sondreal's soft spoken ways.

Charles Swenson transfers his bass horn to the next "giant" who thinks he can fill "Charlies" shoes.

Virginia Larson receives Janice Tangen's interests in the Armed Forces.

Myrna Johnson falls heir to Ruth Thingelstad's naturally blonde hair.

Ellen Wisler transfers part of her height to Gordon Peterson.

We do hereby sign and seal this document with best wishes for everyone.

(Signed) SENIOR CLASS OF 1957

By Ruth Ann Halverson

Class Prophecy

Dear Diary,

May 24, 1977

Coming back on duty and checking through the night's reports, I discovered the name Ruth Ann Halverson. The name seemed to ring a bell, and I remembered my old classmate from Northwood High School. Looking further I found that her luck had again held out, and she was not seriously injured when she wrecked her fourth Ferrari. Naturally I made a bee line to her room and found her much the same as always, although she is now the head fashion merchandiser for Saks Fifth Avenue.

As we talked we recalled old friends and classmates, and this is what I learned:

Marilyn Hanson, the girl with the sparkling laugh, has now been hired by Jackie Gleason as his official laugher.

Ruth Ann said she had seen Pat Ostlie, now the wife of the famous manufacturer of class rings, and had had coffee with her last week; and I remembered that Wanda Johnson, another "girl in white" was also married. She had wed a rich patient shortly after her graduation from nurses training.

Wesley Knain, our friend over the coffee cup, had recently been appointed to the position of general of the Air Force. He always said he was going to make the Air Force a career.

The radio, which had been playing softly suddenly blared, "Gordon Sondreal, star center fielder for the Brooklyn Dodgers, has hit his fifth home run in his world series game against the New York Yankees."

After returning from Greenland, Scott Johnson, the millionaire playboy finally decided to settle down outside of Northwood on one of his extensive potatoe farms located two and one half miles south of this thriving community.

When Ruth Ann made a trip to Northwood a month ago, who should she see but Nancy Hanson. She is now the wife of the manager of the Krabbenhoft Farms. They went over to the "Drive Inn", and Lyle Ellingson, Northwood's richest farmer and famous collector of antique cars, came roaring into the driveway. As Nancy and Ruth Ann chatted Ruth Ann learned that Sharon Anderson is married to the world famous constructor of school houses. She is kept busy most of the time with her nine children. On her way back to New York Ruth Ann stopped in Grand Forks and saw Arlene Mullet, now the superintendant of schools.

Last year when I was vacationing in Paris, I told Ruth Ann, I saw Becky Bilden. She is the private tutor to Princess Caroline of Monocco. Rumor has it that Princess Grace is so fond of Becky, she plans to make her a countess. Ellen Wisler was in Paris at the same time. She has been employed as a secretary in a model agency, but she is now studying art under a direct descendant of Vac Ghogh.

The radio again interrupted our conversation. This time to announce Charlie Swenson and his Norwegian Oom-pa-pa Band. He's gone a long way with that bass horn.

On a buying trip to San Francisco Ruth Ann saw three more former classmates of ours. Ruth Thingelstad and her husband, the coach of the San Francisco Dons, and Marna Haugo, Elvis Presley's private secretary and consultant, were both staying at the newly constructed hotel, which was an anniversary present to Janice Tangen from her husband, the world famous hotel owner. I hear tell he rose from a lowly bell hop to his present position.

Shirley Gunderson, after winning the National Betty Crocker Baking Contest, took over Betty Crocker's job after her retirement. We agreed that it seemed strange to see a familiar name like Shirley Gunderson's Cake Mix.

The papers recently carried the picture of Margaret Sondreal and her millionaire oil tycoon husband as they started out on their annual vacation to the Riviera. It seems Margaret achieved her life-long ambition of becoming rich.

As I stepped out of the hospital after our conversation I was reminiscing about high school days and ran square into Mervyn Bjerke, the general manager of General Motors Corporation and Robert Sherva, chief electrical engineer for the Westinghouse Company. They told me they were in New York for a world wide "motor" convention. The speaker for the day had been the world-renowned atomic scientist, Dennis Grina.

Well, another busy day is over, and I guess I'd better turn in, because tomorrow I'll be back at the same old grind.
